A Word-for- Word Meaning of the Qur'an Translated by Dr. Muhammad Mohar Ali Published by Jam'iat Ihyaa'Minhaaj al-Sunnah Ipswich, England. 3 Paperback Volumes 2096 Pages - Vol.1 721 pages, Vol.2 687 pages, Vol.3 688 pages (Index is more than 60 pages) About his translation Professor Ali said, "The translation that I gave is continuous, the meaning is clear, the English is idiomatic, not broken, so that even if the Arabic text is not kept side by side, by reading the English only, the sense can be understood and sense can be found. That is why I have named it the Word-for-Word Meaning of the Qur'an." The third feature of this translation is the cross-references. Professor Ali has given cross-references. He has given the word meaning side by side along with the general English meaning and within the Arabic grammar and also the verb forms, so that any person who does not know Arabic can get some help in learning Qur'anic Arabic and if any Englishman wants to know and understand the meaning of the Qur'an, he will have with him the text as well as the English meaning. Qur'an. Of course, Qur'an cannot be translated into any language as such, but the meaning can be written and that is what I have attempted to do," commented Professor Ali. While explaining about the index, Professor Ali observed: "I have prepared the index as far as possible. I want to admit that it is very difficult, or perhaps impossible, to give an exhaustive complete index of the Holy Qur'an and in course of my doing this index, I found that even one Ayah has reference to so many topics and so many ideas. So many themes are concentrated in one Ayah that even sometimes I was puzzled under which heading or under how many headings I should enter one Ayah." Ref: Muslim World League
