Ramon Masats: Sanfermines Ernest Hemingway

When Spanish photographer Ramon Masats began this photo essay in 1955, Pamplona was already a hot spot for artists and writers. It was first made popular through Ernest Hemingway's account of Sanfermines, the running of the bulls, in his 1926 novel The Sun Also Rises--after which publications from all over the world commissioned photographs of Pamplona from the likes of Inge Morath, Catala-Roca, Leopoldo Pomes and Lucien Clergue. Text in English and Spanish.
